FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

Congressman Charles W. Whalen, Jr., today announced the formation of a Congressional Intern Selection Committee.

The group will select a winner from those students nominated by senior high school principals in the Third Congressional District. It will begin its deliberations next week.

The winning student will spend the summer as a member of Whalen's Washington staff with a salary of $325 per month.

Chairman of the committee will be M. Byron Morton, assistant state superintendent of education, a resident of Vandalia.

James Clarke, community relations director for the Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce, will be committee secretary.

Members include Rev. Gordon Price, Mrs. Charles Bridge, Charles Washington and Dayton Police Sgt. Charles Woodall.

The committee's decision, including the naming of four alternates, will be made in mid-April.
